HOW DO I LEARN THE ART OF A HEALING CONVERSATION?

Empathy and Therapeutic Conversations - with Bradley Kirrage

Date: Monday 22 April, Time: 09:30 – 16:00
Cost: £90 (Includes lunch and refreshments with a complimentary Eden Tiffin)

We hear the word ‘empathy’ a lot especially in counselling. But what is empathy? Are there different ways to display it? How can I help a child feel felt?

In this training Bradley will be exploring these questions and will demonstrate some techniques in the art of Empathy and Therapeutic Conversations. He will bring tools like ‘The big empathy drawing’, ‘The river of life’ and tips to really listen and engage with a child.

Bradley has received first hand training from Dr Dan Hughes on his model of PACE and he will be bringing this to the training too.

“Empathy is like giving someone a psychological hug”.
